A farewell note

We sadly say farewell to Kate Persaud who is leaving Fairlands Middle School after 18 years. Kate has fulfilled every role possible in Fairlands, including teacher, Head of Year, Curriculum Leader, Assistant Headteacher and latterly Deputy Headteacher. We will miss Kate's wonderful personality and incredible determination and wish her all the best in her new role as Headteacher at Elmfield School for the Deaf in Bristol. We said goodbye and good luck to Kate and other members of staff who are leaving us, at a function at the end of term. All three headteachers Kate had worked with attended the event. She is pictured with Stefan McHale, Peter Elmy and Barry Parkin.

Year 7 Crealy Trip

In spite of delayed coaches and intermittent rain, Year 7 had the most amazing day out at Crealy Theme Park & Resort this week. They didn't stop for the whole day, enjoying rides, slides, animals and the biggest quantity of sweets and donuts consumed in a day ever! The best quote from one of the children was "this is the best day of my life, I wish it could last forever." Their behaviour was impeccable and the staff thoroughly enjoyed it too.
